- (2) A person filling a casual vacancy shall serve for the remaining period of office of the person whose departure gave rise to the vacancy. Where the remaining term of office is for more than one year the vacancy will be filled at the next election.
- (3) Where the period referred to in (2) above is less than a year the vacancy shall not, usually, be filled. Where there is a need for expertise on a particular subject at a Board meeting, a person with such expertise can be invited ad hoc to that meeting.
- (4) Where the period referred to in (2) above is greater than a year the casual vacancy will be included in the next National Board election. As described in 19 (6) below, the candidate for a casual vacancy will also stand for an 'any sector' vacancy. For an election to a sector where there is both a substantive place and a casual vacancy, the substantive places will be filled by those candidates with the most votes and the person with the next highest number of votes will fill the casual vacancy. The casual vacancy will be for the remaining term of the original, retiring Member.
- (5) For an election where there is an 'any sector' position/s to fill and where there is an additional place to be filled due to a casual vacancy, the 'any sector' substantive place/s will be filled by those candidates with the most votes and the person with the next highest number of votes, in the relevant sector, will fill the casual vacancy and will be a Member of the Board for the remaining term of the original, retiring Member. This will take precedence over the process in 19(4).
- (6) For casual vacancies in sectors which have only one elected person, the person with the highest number of votes will be elected to fill the vacancy.
- (7) An additional Board Member can be elected, under the above process, in the event of a casual vacancy occurring between the time that the election scheme for any year is approved by the Assembly and the start of the election process.
- (8) If a casual vacancy occurs once the election process has started, in order to avoid a vacancy of more than a year, at the next election the defeated candidate (in the appropriate sector if relevant) with the highest number of votes shall be elected for the remainder of the term of the original Board Member.

- (9) In the case of a casual vacancy occurring due to a specific sector place failing to be filled by an election (e.g. two sector places are vacant and only one candidate presents), (country) Board Members will elect a Member at their next Board meeting as per the voting procedure below.

If the (country) Board considers it is necessary to fill a casual vacancy, as per the above, Board Members will be requested by the Secretary to the Board (Country Directors) to bring their nomination(s), which has/have been agreed with the nominee(s), to the next formal meeting of the (country) Board, the following voting procedure will then take place.

(10) Voting procedure

- i. Nominations for the casual vacancy will close before the first vote is taken.
- ii. A blank ballot paper will be distributed to each Board Member present.
- iii. The Board's secretary will read the names of the candidates for the casual vacancy and invite each Board Member present to write the name of their preferred candidate on the ballot paper. The papers will then be collected.
- iv. If one candidate had received the majority of the total votes cast, that person will be deemed to have been elected to the position concerned.
- v. In the event that no candidate receives a majority of all votes cast in the first ballot, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes in that ballot will be eliminated and the procedure set out in ii-iv above will be repeated. This procedure will be repeated until one candidate receives the majority of all votes cast.
- vi. If, in any ballot in which one candidates does not receive the majority of all votes cast, two or more candidates tie with the lowest number of votes, a separate ballot involving only those candidates will be held under the procedure set out in ii-iv above to decide which of these candidates is to be eliminated.
- vii. If, when there are only two candidates for a post, there is a tie in the ballot, a further ballot will be held under the procedure set out in ii-iv above. If there is still a tie after this second ballot, the Board meeting will be adjourned for five minutes and, on its resumption, nominations for the post concerned will again be called for. This procedure set out in ii-iv above, as appropriate, will then be followed.

  - (b) disqualifying a candidate or candidates;
  - (c) rerunning any ballot or election.
- (5) Before taking any action in accordance with the above paragraphs, the Returning Officer(s) may take further steps to investigate the matter, and may seek legal advice.
- (6) The election held under this scheme shall not be invalidated by reason solely of any non-compliance with, or the non-delivery or loss of any document required under, this scheme, if it appears to the Returning Officer that the election was conducted substantially in accordance with this scheme, and that the result of such non-compliance, non-delivery or loss did not affect the return of any candidate at the election.
- (7) The decision of the Returning Officer in relation to any challenge to, or complaint or information concerning, the election, shall be final.
