Workforce Wellbeing
Mental health and wellbeing survey summary

72% negatively affected by their job.

89% at high risk of burnout.

43% said their mental health was not good or poor.

85% believe COVID-19 has affected their mental health and wellbeing to some extent.

44% not comfortable accessing support from their employer. (Reasons include: confidentiality and trust, stigma, and potential impact on career)

34% have considered leaving the profession.

76% stress of work.

68% inadequate staffing.

Top factors for poor mental health and wellbeing

For more information, visit www.rpharms.com